FROM CHAIRMAN

From the core of my heart would like to seek your kind attention towards Radha Krishna Public School , Lal Kuan that I rightly acclaim it's an house of knowledge , molding personality , sighting & displaying unique concealed talent and additionally kingdom of teaching competency for students & staff members for attaining substantial holistic developments in all the spheres of true education.

We are blessed with teachers who are educational leaders in different areas of the curriculum. They are student-focused and continuously work on developing a learning environment where each child has the opportunity to think, to learn, to seek answers, to be creative, and to grow into a well-rounded, independent, respectful citizen who will strive to achieve their personal best by setting high goals for themselves and reaching for their dreams.

I firmly believe in KARMA not in PHALA hence we collectively trying to give the best to the society. I have a dream and my dreams are going to fulfill one day when the products from this institution groom the nation, become the true citizens and honing the capability. In our educational practice I place high stress on learning moral values students should absorb I strongly believe in creativity, innovation , accepting challenges and building personality so that I come up with a nautical activities to help our kids to hone their hidden talents and I assert passionately that every kid in our school is unique product .

Dear friends four things are very necessary to make every man great , every institution great and every nation great . They are...

1. Confidence of the powers of goodness
2. Absence of jealousy
3. Helping others
4. Discipline

I take this opportunity to promise all the parents to give more and more facilities, better faculty and more immunities in our every attempt

Thank You All

PRINCIPAL'S DESK

RADHA KRISHNA Co-ed School welcomes you all at the new academic session. With a grateful heart I stand before the Almighty God to thank Him for his constant presence, protection, inspiration and guidance experienced by the RKPS Co-ed family. I sincerely thank my dedicated staff for their devoted, loyal and conscientious services rendered to the school and molding the students to become responsible future. I also wish to thank the parents and well-wishers for their constant support and help rendered to each and every hand. A big thank you for making your school proud, by being the best.

We began our new academic session by welcoming the tiny tots to the primary wing of our school with hearts over-whelming with love, care and concern. The children took their first step with their parents into the portal of their school with mixed feelings of anxiety, worries and tears not aware that they are beginning an important milestone of their life that will create excitement, joy, friendship, teamwork, lessons and opportunities on a journey of thirteen long years in the school, as the cartwheel of their lives moves on.

Next we encountered a choice of holistic activities, tuning up with cultural events and passing onto scholastics. The students can step ahead on their journey of a new life to face challenges, with confidence. They have learnt many things from the text books, teachers and the campus on the whole. They are trained to aspire, acquire, information from their upbeat teachers and the campus has coached them to be stubborn and fortified

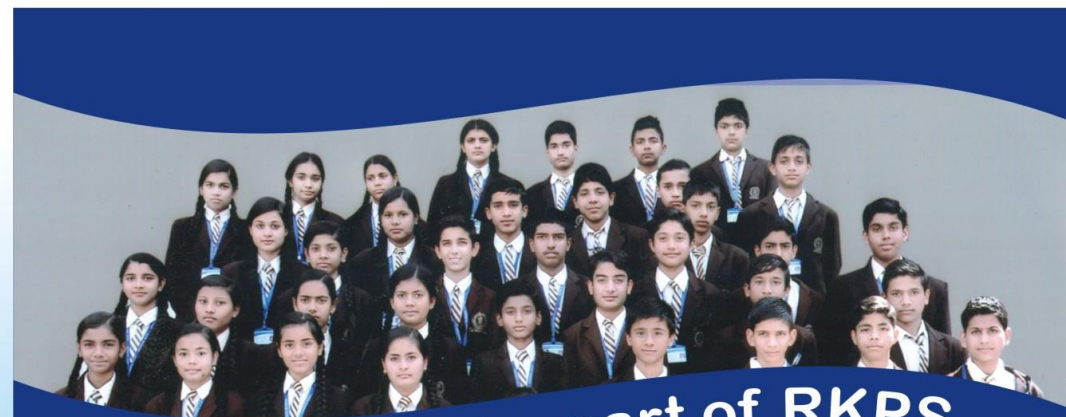

RKPS is the place where a child steps in, to stand afresh with his tender roots sinking into the nourishing soil to become a huge fruit bearing tree, spreading branches of love, sensitivity, brotherhood, joy and peace. I strongly believe that RKPS Co-ed plays a major role in the lives of every pupil to stand firm to face the ever-changing world. They are taught to enjoy the world aright making each one experience the real flow of life in their veins. The school provides a platform for the students to explore their environment to learn, enhance their talents, and instill disciplinary values and venture into the world with a multitude of academic and cultural activities.

May God bless us and keep us ever under the cloak of His all providing grace!
